

County Asks Court to Reject Gogerty Lawsuit

GOERTY WEIGHS BALLOT RECOUNT

A junior college law suit, college bond issue ballots and petitions demanding the abolition of Palm Desert Airpark were today targeted for impending and implied action by both factions embroiled in the current junior college site dispute.

County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan said he has launched a Superior Court attack on Hotelman Hank Gogerty's complaint against the junior college site, asking that the complaint be thrown out of court.

SULLIVAN SAID he has filed a demurrer which asks the court to reject Gogerty's complaint on grounds that it is an "obscure" and "inequate" lawsuit, which, he claims, does not state a clear-cut objective by the complainant.

Hearing on the demurrer is scheduled for Friday, Oct. 30, at Indio Superior Court.

Gogerty, who is currently scrutinizing bond issue ballots with a view towards a possible recount action, had but one comment on Sullivan's action:

"They can delay my lawsuit if they want to. It's all right with me."

GOERTY'S SUPERIOR Court complaint, branded as a "law suit without merit" by Sullivan, seeks a restraining order halting acquisition of the Palm Desert College site until college trustees are able to meet requirements of the California Aeronautics Commission.

"I don't think it is an answerable complaint because it doesn't state any cause for action," Sullivan explained. "It is kind of obscure in stating what it seeks."

MEANWHILE, GOERTY was today weighing two issues related to his campaign against the college site — the question of a possible recount on bond ballots and a petition calling for abandonment of his Palm Desert Airpark.

Gogerty said his Committee for Safety in Schools will study the bond election results, which were canvassed by the college trustees last night. Gogerty was particularly interested in the large number of "rejected ballots," 45 all told, which, he feels, could have had a reverse effect on the election.

To Civilian Control

Ike Takes Army Out of 'Space'

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI) — President Eisenhower today ordered the transfer of the Army's space team headed by Werner von Braun to the civilian National Aeronautics and Space Administration to "best serve the national interests."

The shift of the big Army ballistic agency will be submitted to Congress as a reorganization plan in January. But Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said today "procedures and mechanics" involved in the transfer would be undertaken immediately.

ASKED IF THE President's action "takes the Army out of the space field," Hagerty said, "Yes."

Chessman Granted Execution Stay On New Appeal to Supreme Court

Sales Total $10-Million For 3 Months

Second Quarter Totals Top Last Year's Tabulation

Cash register bells rang a new note of prosperity in Village stores during the second quarter of 1959 as taxable retail sales ranged above the $10 million mark for the three-month period.

City Finance Director Shelby Langford said today that sales for the period — the highest for any second quarter — topped last year's April-May-June figure by $1,824,000.

THIS UNPRECEDENTED increase in the city's retail business volume was revealed today in a report based on tax collections made by the state and returned to the city.

A retail sales table prepared by Langford showed that all but one of the city's various retail categories marked business increases.

Service stations and auto supply stores showed a $7,000 decrease — from $49,000 in 1958 to $42,000 in 1959.

THE BIGGEST increase in sales volume for the second quarter was registered by the city's six motor vehicle dealers, which had combined taxable sales of $1,655,000, almost double the sales revenue of $892,000 for the same period last year.

Eating and drinking places scored the second highest mark, with $1,494,000. Last year's second-quarter take was $1,428,000.

Apparel stores were third with $1,329,000, as compared to $1,182,000 last year. Personal service establishments, now numbering 118 as opposed to 99 last year, earned $786,000, as compared to $691,000 last year.

OTHER SALES marks, with last year's revenue in brackets:

General merchandise stores, $741,000 ($10,000); food and candy stores, $518,000 ($448,000); packaged liquor and tobacco stores, $197,000 ($181,000); drug stores, $871,000 ($744,000); home furnishing and appliance stores, $271,000 ($167,000); building material stores, $579,000 ($413,000); miscellaneous, $1,034,000 ($914,000).

Last of Quinns Succumbs Today

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — The last of the Hannan quintuplets, a one-pound, 11-ounce girl that could fit comfortably in an adult's hand, died today after an 18 hour and nine minute fight for survival.

The quintuplets were all girls and none lived long enough to be named. The one that lived the longest was "Baby D," so called because she was the fourth to be born.

Their pretty blonde mother, Mrs. Charles G. Hanna, 27, and her husband, a 29-year-old Air Force navigator, were grief-stricken.

FARMER FIGHTING TO SAVE LIFE OF 'SISSIFIED' BULL

SOLIHULL, England (UPI) — Farmer William Titecum and his wife hoped today to put off the scheduled execution of Brook Mandore, their bull which the government claims is too sissy-looking to live.

Ministry of Agriculture officials said Brook Mandore, a 14-month-old Ayrshire bull, must die today unless he is sent into exile for 70 minutes.

ARMY SECRETARY Wilber M. Brucker, who did not take part in the group discussion, held a separate conference with Eisenhower, but the secretary would not comment on the nature of their talk.

However, Brucker discussed with reporters events which brought the new wrangle into the open.

SPEEDING CITATION FAILS TO IMPRESS; PAIR IN HOSPITAL

A 23-year-old Norco man received a speeding citation in Riverside last night and — less than four hours later — received major injuries in an accident on Highway 60-70-99 near here.

Kenneth Haines was reported "still unconscious" in Desert Hospital today after being thrown from his vehicle when it overturned on the highway about one mile east of Indian Avenue.

Jack N. Cagney, 33, of Artesia, a companion of Haines, was also thrown from the vehicle, and is described as "in critical condition" at the hospital.

In Haines' personal effects, hospital attendants found a citation issued by the California Highway Patrol in Riverside at 10:45 p.m., last night. Haines had been cited for 75 m.p.h. in a 45-mile-an-hour zone. The accident on Highway 60-70-99 occurred at about 2 a.m.

Indians Vote In Favor of Airport Sale

The Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians has voted unanimously to offer for sale to the City of Palm Springs the Palm Springs Airport.

In a tally of the votes yesterday afternoon, the Tribal Council reported that 22 of the 30 adult voting members of the tribe had signed the petition in favor of the move.

THESE WERE NO signatures on the petition against the sale.

As soon as the city and the Indians have an appraisal made of the airport property, a bond issue will be drawn and presented to the people of Palm Springs in an election.

THE AREA INCLUDED in the proposed sale to the city will cover almost all of Section 18, with the exception of three allotted holdings, and part of Section 12, which is owned by Priscilla Gonzales.

The holdings in Section 18 are the properties of three Indian minors, Joy Pierce, daughter of Lawrence Pierce; Damon Patrick Prieto, son of Dora J. Prieto; and Audrey Elizabeth Welmas, daughter of Leon Welmas.

Palm Springs officials, to get title to all the necessary property, will have to deal independently with the allotment holders.

Typhoon Dinah Threatens Japan

TOKYO (UPI) — Typhoon Dinah roared over the Pacific Ocean toward the main island of Japan today with top winds of 161 miles an hour.

The typhoon was all girls and none lived long enough to be named. The one that lived the longest was "Baby D," so called because she was the fourth to be born.

Their pretty blonde mother, Mrs. Charles G. Hanna, 27, and her husband, a 29-year-old Air Force navigator, were grief-stricken.

Ride and Dinner

Drill Team Sets Special Event

First special event of the season for the Palm Springs Mounted Drill Team will be a wiener roast ride — public invited — at 5:30 p.m., Saturday, the young leaders of the organization said today.

Decision to stage the event was made at the group's initial meeting of the year Saturday. At the meeting, Barbara Corcoran was elected president, Sue Rolapp was named publicity chairman and Adrian Embree was tabbed secretary-treasurer.

The trouble with poor Brook Mandore is that he is too sweet-faced, too pretty. In fact, he looks more like a cow than a bull. The Ministry of Agriculture said his male offspring might look too unbullyish, too, so Brook must go.

ENTERTAINMENT will follow the wiener roast and will feature Cliff Campbell, who has been a standout entertainer in many such activities in this area.

Reservations for the wiener roast may be made by calling FA 4-9515 or FA 5-6794 no later than 8 p.m. Friday.

MEETING THE PRESS in a special Biltmore Hotel conference this morning, members of a Congressional sub-committee investigating agriculture problems in the Imperial and Coachella Valleys report on their progress to date in a whirlwind, two-day tour of both areas. From left to right are Congressman Edgar Chenoweth, of Colorado, Congressman Walter Rogers, of Texas, committee chairman; Congressman D. S. Saund, of the 23rd Congressional District here, and Villager Lionel Steinberg, who introduced the three members of the five-man investigating committee to the Palm Springs press. Steinberg is a member of the State Board of Agriculture and reported to the sub-committee during hearings in the Coachella Valley today. (Desert Sun Photo).

TRAILER RALLY GETS UNDER WAY

A travel trailer with its aluminum prow dipped in pure gold and a bullet-shaped unit capable of completely sustaining its occupants for ten days or more in jungle country were two of 200 trailers which today attracted 1,000 industry members to an exclusive preview of the nation's largest travel trailer exhibition at the Polo Grounds here.

At noon, Friday, the gates to the Ninth Annual Travel Trailer Show and Rally swing open free to the public, with 50,000 and more expected to view the $400,000 exhibit of 1960 models before closing Sunday night.

ALTHOUGH THE MASS display is primarily a showcasing of 27-foot and under travel and vacation units, mobile homes up to 50-feet in length will be added to the exhibition by Palm Springs area dealers for a Friday through Sunday showing.

Most of the registrants today formed long lines at the show, the move-in scheduled for early tomorrow morning.

A European "continental" theme will be used by one of the largest travel trailer clubs to salute the success of its overseas jaunts. A 40 by 50 foot painted backdrop of European landmarks will be used to support the theme.

IN ADDITION TO the new-model exhibit, over 1,000 travel trailer club enthusiasts are expected to pull their own units into an area adjacent to the show, with the move-in scheduled for early tomorrow morning.

According to TCA Show Chairman Roy Clayton, new-design trailers at the event will cover all major models engineered for the new season, including 12-foot "scouts" for overnight fishing and camping trips to luxurious "land yachts," capable of round-the-world trips.

The Congressional committee will be joined tonight by Sen. Clair Engle, of California.

Yesterday, the committee explored salinity and irrigation problems of Imperial Valley in an effort to gather information for a study and solution of the increasing salt content in the soil of both valleys and Colorado River water, which is a major source of irrigation for both areas.

TESTIMONY YESTERDAY indicated that the situation is critical in some Imperial Valley areas, but also revealed that some 50 per cent of the Imperial land has been tiled to drain off salt-carrying water and reclaim soil threatened with virtually destruction, insofar as agricultural productivity is concerned.

The court will be in session the week of Nov. 9 and Nov. 16. It will meet Nov. 23 for decisions and then recess until Dec. 7.

California's present governor, Edmund G. Brown, who also refused to grant clemency to Chessman, declined to comment on the Supreme Court's action. An aide said Brown felt any comment would be "improper" because the case is before the Supreme Court.

Atop City Hall

U.N. Flag to Fly Here Tomorrow

Official raising of the United Nations flag over the Palm Springs City Hall tomorrow will mark the observance of U.N. Day in the desert area.

Representation by members of the City Council, city administrators, as well as heads of civic and business organizations will be present to take part in the activities.

CHAIRMAN FOR the event is Mrs. Frankie Spitz, a Palm Springs resident, who was a delegate to the World Conference last December.

Although local ceremonies will be held tomorrow, U.N. Day will be celebrated throughout the world on Saturday.

Mayor Frank Bogert signed a proclamation this week asking the people of Palm Springs to join in observance of United Nations Day.

MRS. SPITZ ALSO announced today that plans were being made to form a chapter of the American Association for the U.N. and will seek representation from all local organizations. The meeting will be held Oct. 25, at which time Herman W. Steinraus, president of the American Association for the U.N. will be present to speak at the gathering.

The Palm Springs Chapter is planned as headquarters for Riverside County.

Rigged TV Shows Spice N.Y. Gags

NEW YORK — Be glad you're dumb — I am. If we'd been brilliant, we might have been quiet show winners — under subpoena. I always wanted to be a contestant, but I had a serious problem.

I didn't know anything about anything.

"What could my category be?" I asked the Beautiful Wife. "What's my specialty?" "Your specialty is messing up the house, especially the kitchen late at night," she said, acidly.

There's a lot of kidding about it around B'way — people were looking at Elaine Malbin's gorgous figure at the Pierre Hotel. "Evening with George Gershwin" last night and saying "Her figure's rigged" — but it turns out now you didn't have to know so much to win.

Contest-bosses would give contestants a stack of books and say "Read these!"

The lucky contestant found certain pages were turned down or a card was sticking out of one part of one book. He took the hint.

"How would you like to become an expert on music?" one celebrated home run hitter was asked.

"I know absolutely nothing about music," he said.

"We'll take care of that. We'll make you an expert and you'll make a LOT of money," they said. He turned it down, considering it crooked.

Teddy Nadler was being built up on "The $64,000 Challenge" when Toots Shor opposed him on baseball. The program chiefs said all the information used would be found in Sporting News' record books. When Toots lost, he searched the record books and found the information wasn't there.

He complained to the program that the information wasn't in Sporting News' record books.

"No, but it was in the World Almanac," they said.

Charles Van Doren's mystery may be that he had an amazing memory, which is true. He's also inordinately shy. A psychologist advised him to overcome his shyness by becoming a teacher — and going on a quiz show.

I don't want to be holier-than-thou because I was on some small-time quiz shows on which I was asked questions prior to the program. Then, on the program, they asked me the questions they knew I could answer.

A good thing, too, because when they asked me some questions cold, I flunked. One question I answered, I remember, by saying, "France."

"That's close," yelled the m.c., embarrassed by my stupidity. "The answer is England." But suppose I'd won and gone on to other shows. Now I'd be squirming. Truly, it pays to be ignorant.

Borge Opens Saturday in Sahara Hotel

'Big Band' Police To Be Introduced At Las Vegas Hotel

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — The stimulating humor and stuttering piano technique of versatile Victor Borge will brighten the Congo Room of Hotel Sahara here Saturday when the celebrated Great Dane opens an almost five-week

AS IS ROUTINE, Borge's performance will be a one-man show, but his opening date will mark the introduction of another Sahara innovation, late-hour dancing to big name bands in the Congo room.

Tabbed to kick off the new polly of nightly dancing is Les Brown and "The Band of Renown," who are scheduled to play nightly—or morning, depending on how you look at it—from 2:30 to 6:30 a.m. Brown is set through Oct. 31 to be followed by Russ Morgan and his orchestra.

Home League Attacks Low Police Pay

City Acquisition Of Golf Course Also Criticized

A double-barreled attack — on the "low" police salary scale and also a continued attack on the city's lease-purchase agreement for the Municipal Golf Course — has been voiced by the Palm Springs Home Owners League.

The League, in its October newsletter, reviewed current city problems but gave the bulk of its attention to the police pay and city golf situations.

CITING THE "splendid record" of the Palm Springs Police Department, the newsletter detailed the difficulty in obtaining and keeping good personnel on a poor payroll scale.

"Our pay rates for the Police Department are too low to attract and keep good, dependable men," the newsletter said.

The League recommended that the city not wait for results of the current state-sponsored survey here but immediately grant a blanket percentage hike to all police personnel.

SWITCHING TO the golf course situation, the League predicted that the city's plan to finance the $62,500 annual lease (plus taxes) would meet with failure because of the inability of the community's merchants to contribute a demanded additional $72,000 in increased licensing fees.

League President B. F. Shearer, in detailing the prediction, said that the city had not acted in good faith but, rather, in a manner "reprehensible on moral grounds."

"I stated before," Shearer said, "and I still maintain that this golf course deal is an economic fiasco."

THE LEAGUE has contended that with the golf course expenditure as expensive as it is, the council should have taken the matter to the electorate for a final decision.

general public interest this year will be focused on the revolutionary developments in the "self-contained" travel trailers.

"More leisure time and longer vacations," he told The Desert Sun, "are proving assets to the trailer business."

JOHN O'CONOR, Executive Director of the powerful 500-member association, watchdog of the industry in 11 western states, pointed out that 85 per cent of the nation's travel trailer sales take place in the West.

Paul Harrison, Chairman of the Rally portion of the Show, said today Mayor Frank Bogert and Supervisor George Berkery will personally greet Rallyists Saturday evening at the Polo Field Stadium.

Lionel Kay and the Mad Caps have been set by the Rally Committee to head the entertainment.

National Book Week Displays Set by Schools

Palm Springs schools will observe National Book Week — Nov. 1 through 7—with special book and colorful poster displays. School District Librarian Louise James announced today.

Miss James said individual classrooms will also have displays based on the "Go Exploring in Books" theme for the 41st annual Book Week.

The theme will also be used in displays of books used by the school district in Bullock's store, from Nov. 2 through 7.

Miss James also plans to visit classrooms during the week. She will recite stories for youngsters in the first and second grades. She said the Book Week is "a tradition for children and young people, highlighting their reading and enjoyment of books."

—Named the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen, founder of the Republic of China, as Asia's outstanding leader during the last 50 years.

—Called Dr. Sun's 1911 Chinese revolution against the Manchu empire one of the major events of the 20th Century because it "gave impetus to the independence and self-determination of various other Asian nations."

—WARNED. "IT IS on the Asian continent that the Communists plan to wage their final decisive battle against the democratic world. The fate of the whole world will therefore be decided on this vast and densely-populated continent."

There's nothing like a new car and no new car like Chevrolet. This is the exciting Impala Convertible!

SIXTY'S SIZZLER

The car with the year's hottest style is getting the warmest reception of all!

And it's no wonder...

when you look at all the new and different things Chevrolet has for 1960! Come and see it!

THAT'S CHEVY!

You can tell already, by the growing number of new Chevrolets you see on the road, that this one's the sizzler for Sixty! It was bound to happen. When you make an effort to find out all the things most people want in a car, then make sure they're all designed into a car most people can afford, you're almost certain to receive a pretty hot reception.

People look over Chevrolet's 16 freshly styled '60 models. They see a choice of 24 engine-drive combinations, including a new Economy Turbo-Fire V8. They drive a Chevy. They like the way the ride has been polished and perfected with new rubber-cushion body mounts muffling road hum and vibration. They like Chevy's wide seats, its wonderfully easy handling, the whole feeling of cruising along smoothly and comfortably in a car that never tires of travel. They just can't see a good reason for looking any farther.

Matter of fact, it looks like Chevrolet has a corner on quality and fine features in its field. Even costly cars have to look to their laurels—Chevrolet sets a new standard by matching elegance with economy. By offering luxury you've never seen before in Chevrolet's price class. We've got a hunch you'll go for this one. Just try it . . . and see if we aren't right!

The Superlative '60 Chevrolet . . . nearest to perfection a low-priced car ever came!

Publisher Back At Desert Home

By JEAN PATANE
Mr. and Mrs. William A. (Bill) Wallace have returned to their Rancho Mirage home for another winter season. Bill published the "Milepost," an informative book on travel through Canada and Alaska. The Wallaces spend four months each summer in Western Canada, including the Yukon Territory, and Alaska gathering material and information for "The Milepost."

This past summer they were most interested in learning the effect of "Statehood" on Alaska. Highway 19, connecting the two states, was opened to traffic. The Wallaces are spending the winter season at Rancho Mirage Hotel.

Enjoying a desert weekend at Rancho Mirage Hotel were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hagen of Anaheim. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. MacKranzky and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Emmons from Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bacon and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Brown, who returned to their home in Long Beach Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Sturtevant returned to their Rancho Mirage home after a summer on the coast. Before returning from their home at Hermosa Beach they spent a few weeks visiting in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Smith of Sun Dial Apartments, are back at their home in Seattle. Their sons, Arthur and Ian, are attending the University of Washington. Among the weekend guests at the Sun Dial were Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Leuran and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Switzer from Lakewood, and frequent visitors from Santa Monica, Dr. Luther Jackson and Dr. Clinton Davenport. At the Sun Dial for a few days during the week were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brady who make their home in San Diego.

Weekend guests at the Ranch Mirage home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tamer were her sister, Mrs. Fleisch Hause, and her son, Tom. Mrs. Hansen's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hansen and four children from Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Farmington of Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Hansen is visiting with her son and family for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tuma of Arcadia have been spending past weekends at the "Casabah" in Rancho Mirage, winning gold at Eldorado. Four years ago, while a member of Thunderbird, Mr. Tuma tied for first place with a pro-member in the Ryder Cup practice competition. This year as a member of Eldorado he spends each weekend golfing in anticipation of the pro-member contest in connection with the Ryder Cup Match next month.

Mike Buccino, who is attending Cal Poly College in Pomona, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Buccino.

CAMERON CENTER'S 1,000-CAR parking lot is not only Palm Springs' most spacious, but it's tops in feminine pulchritude. Responsible for the latter is pretty Powers model Patti O'Quinn. Miss O'Quinn scours "Lucky Parker" license plates at the south-end Golden Mile shopping mart for the mystery photographer. Watch the Desert Sun this Saturday to see if your plates were spotted by Miss O'Quinn. "Lucky Parkers" receive a potted palm prize at Cameron Center offices, 801 Random Drive. George Cameron, Jr., originated the contest as a means of upgrading the use of palm trees in Palm Springs' residential landscaping. (Gayle Studio Photo).

Becks End Tour By Volkswagen

Beckleys

By AL NEHLI

Riley and Helen Beck have returned from a trip to Alaska in their Volkswagen Camper, which came to them fully outfitted from Germany. This car took them from their home in South Gate to Seward, Alaska, a distance of 9,000 miles, round trip.

The Becks reported the most beautiful part of their trip was the Caribou Country in British Columbia from Clinton to Quesnel. The roads to Quenel were very good and the country was lush with fish, Dahl sheep, grizzly bear, moose and caribou.

They visited the Indian graveyards where each grave has a tiny house built over it and each year the Indians bring food as an offering to the spirits. Their view of Mt. McKinley was a favored one as on that particular day the weather cleared and they could see the tip of the 20,320 foot high mountain.

On their trip back they shipped their Wagen and came from Whitehorse to Vancouver in a boat, enjoying the "Inner Passage" despite the fog and rain.

This week Beckley's welcomed many new friends, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hypes of Santa Ana, the Art Ryans from Monterey Park, the George Lowrys from San Gabriel, the Waldo Bogarts from San Gabriel, the Harry B. Maxwells from Los Angeles and the M. Dexters from Hollywood.

Death Valley Outing Is Set

The 10th annual Death Valley Encampment, a four-day outing in Death Valley National Monument, opens Nov. 5. Encampment Chairman Paul Palmer announced today.

The program, sponsored by the Death Valley 49'ers, is open to the public without charge and features 20 principal events, ranging from a campfire sing, chuckwagon dining, conducted tours, burro races, church services and a shooting demonstration with old-time rifles.

NEW FORCE TROOPS FMF-PAC emblem, designed by Captain George Long, will identify the Marine Corps' only rocket, missile and artillery organization—now stationed at Marine Corps Base, 29 Palms—anywhere in the world. Captain Long, a member of the Anti-Aircraft Group at the Base, entered a Base-wide contest early in July which called for an emblem design suitable for shoulder patches to identify this unique Force Troop, Fleet Marine Force Pacific unit. The emblem shows the Marine Corps Emblem at top, the Honest John Rocket at left, the Terrier Missile at right, and an artillery projectile at the bottom. (Official USMC Photo).

PD Woman's Club Hosted at Lunch

BY GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN
Mrs. Leila Thompson, president of the Palm Desert Woman's Club, hosted a luncheon party for 24 at the Shadow Mountain Club for her board of directors, committee chairmen and committees. Mrs. Thompson believed this gathering was a "wonderful way for new officers to become acquainted."

Mrs. Stanley Chambers, Jr., who is in charge of the Palm Desert Community Church's Teen-Age group, reported that there was a turnout of more than 70 young people at their first meeting last Friday night. There was dancing and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schmidt, who were residents here for several years and now live in Ft. Lauderdale, were visitors here last week and were guests of Herbert and Norma Shaw.

Mrs. William Bibee is home again after spending a week or so in Los Angeles shopping for the new Bibee home on Candiefield Drive.

The Palm Desert Record Club met at the home of Warren and Mary McClain. Anyone interested in this type of music is cordially invited to attend. A phone call to Mrs. L. G. Webster on Larrea Street is all one has to do.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Marshall and Mrs. Robert Siebert of Palo Alto and Sun Lodge visitors this week. Mr. Marshall is the assistant mayor of Palo Alto and Mrs. Marshall is an accomplished and well known musician in the Bay area.

Manuel Castareni, district governor of Rotary from Carlsbad, was the guest speaker at Palm Desert Rotary last week.

Mrs. Hudson Werder hosted a small dinner party at Shadow Mountain Club Saturday. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fellows of Beverly Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burton. Other guests at Shadow Mountain Terrace are Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Grace and son, Peter, and Mr. and Mrs. Don McCallum and son, John.

The Ralph Hale are moving their men's apparel store to the Shadow Mountain Club's poolside shop on Nov. 1.

The Palm Desert Woman's Club held their first meeting of the year at Shadow Mountain Club.

The attendance was the largest on record for an opening meeting.

Some 175 ladies attended the luncheon and program. The latter was given by John MacMahan and Peter Reynolds and was called "Romance of Living."

Recognizing the value of a bargain — and praising the value of The Desert Sun to his business as well as to his home — Realtor Culver Nichols this week took advantage of the special Sun subscription offer.

Nichols ordered three copies to be delivered daily to his business office, and one copy to his home.

By paying in advance, he secured the four copies at $15 per year each, saving $12, and receiving a gift from The Desert Sun of four desk pen sets.

Present or new subscribers can also save $3 annually by paying a year in advance at the old rate of $15, and also receive a free desk pen set.

Deadline for the offer is Oct. 31.

Marine Sergeant Outshot by Own Son

Special to The Desert Sun

MARINE CORPS BASE, Twentynine Palms — Small boys usually want to do what their fathers do, and eleven-year-old Craig Goddard, whose father is stationed here, is no exception to the pattern.

But when the three other hunters returned, empty handed, there sat Craig — not on the rock — but on a dandy forked buck that he had killed with one shot.

Asked to explain, Craig told his father that he sat down to rest, saw the buck, aimed and fired.

As simple as that.

One boy, one shot, one buck.

Red Nags Again in Big Race

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sport racing with short steps: Two Russian horses are moving through diplomatic channels toward the $100,000 Washington International at Laurel Md. on Nov. 11. Since the red-tape guys have branded them okay, the two geegees from behind the iron fences will swell the field to 11 — from seven countries. Two Russian mounts competed for the first time in the international last year. They finished fifth and last.

The Baltimore Orioles may present the most revamped team in the majors next season. Rookies Jerry Adair and Marv Breeding could become Baltimore's new double-play combination; and Willie Tasby, a rookie last season, may be the only holdover in the outfield.

IN A BETTING RARITY, both of next week's television fights are quoted at "even money." Wednesday's (ABC) 10-rounder at Miami Beach pits welterweights Luis Rodriguez and Isaac Logart, both of Camaguey, Cuba. Friday's (NBC) 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden brings together heavyweights Tony Anthony of New York and Billy Hunter of Detroit.

Hottest football buff in the major leagues is Coach Ellis Clary of the Washington Senators. Each Saturday Clary travels from his Valdosta, Ga., home to the college "game of the week," and on Sunday he always manages to see a pro grid contest somewhere.

OWNERS OF CLUBS in the National Basketball Association expect the addition of sensational Wilt-the-Stilt Chamberlain to the Philadelphia Warriors this season will add about 300,000 admissions throughout the circuit during the 200 game campaign.

General Manager Gabe Paul of the Cincinnati Reds says there's a good chance his club may make another major trade this winter, similar to the one that landed them Frank Thomas a year ago. Paul says: "Whatever anyone else needs, we have plenty of. We'll listen to any reasonable proposition."

L.A. Open Stakes Richest to Date

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The 34th Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament next January will be played for $44,500, the richest stakes in the history of the West's oldest tourney, chairman Don Seilert announced today.

Previous high purse was $40,000 posted this year. When the Los Angeles Open was started in 1926, officials started the golf world by announcing what was then the highest purse in the sport — $10,000.

The purse was doubled in the last 10 years.

The event, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will kick off the winter golfing circuit.

New Desert-Valley League Action to Start this Week

Palm Springs High School's winless Varsity and undefeated Junior Varsity start play in a new league — the Desert-Valley League — made up of three old Riverside County League teams and three new ones.

Schools in the new league are Palm Springs, Coachella Valley and Banning of the old RCL and three new teams, Indio High, Yucaipa and Twentynine Palms.

The five other schools of the defunct RCL — Beaumont, Perris, Elsinore, Hemet and San Jacinto — tie up with Fallbrook to form the new De Anza League.

IN THIS WEEK'S activity in the new Desert Valley League, the JVs entertain Indio High here Thursday at 6 p. m., while the Varsity goes to Indio Friday night to play at 7 p. m.

In practice encounters so far this season, Coach Clare Ballagh's Indians have bowed to Calexico, Perris, San Jacinto and Hemet while Coach Bob Gilmore and Dick Hough have piloted their Pappoose outfit to wins over Hemet, San Jacinto and Perris.

Ballagh was hampered in his first four games by injuries which plagued his squad, a small one to start out with. He hopes to have most of his men in shape for the new De Anza League.

OLD TIMERS STILL GOING STRONG

Wynn, Jones Voted As Top Major Hurlers

NEW YORK (UPI) — Early Wynn and Sam Jones, two "pleasingly wild" right-handers who seem to improve with age, were named the major league pitchers of the year today by the United Press International.

Wynn, a 22-game winner for the Chicago White Sox, won the American League award with 23 of a possible 24 votes from the committee of experts representing every city in the league. The other vote went to Camilo Pascual, who won 17 games for the Washington Senators.

JONES, WHO APPEARED in 50 games and had a 21-15 record for the San Francisco Giants, received 16 votes from the National League Committee. Elroy Face, the amazingly successful relief ace of the Pittsburgh Pirates, got six votes and Johnny Antonelli of the Giants and Lew Burdette of the Milwaukee Braves got one each.

It was something of a year of vindication for both award winners — Wynn because he had experienced two straight losing seasons and Jones because he proved he could win under the pressure of a pennant race.

Wynn, 39, of Hartford, Ala., was the steady hand of the White Sox staff all season. He had a 22-10 record and 3.13 earned run average. With 271 victories he now is the biggest winner among active major league pitchers and seems to have a good chance to make the 300-club. Yet he started the season as a definite question mark after successive 14-17 and 14-16 seasons that seemed to indicate he was on the way down.

Trojans Lead in All But Passing

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Southern California Trojans lead in five out of six departments in Big Five competition, according to official statistics released today.

Only in passing offense do the Trojans fall, ranking third behind Stanford and Washington. The Trojans lead in rushing offense and defense, total defense, total offense and passing defense.

They were playing in Class A.

THREE DAYS ON THREE COURSES

Set Dates for Senior November Tourney

Invitations are in the mails to-day for the annual November golf tournament of the Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf Association to be played on three courses for three days — O'Donnell, Tamarisk and Thunderbird.

The Lions, only team without victory, face a formidable task at Los Angeles. The Rams always are hard to beat at home and scored road victories over the Bears and Packers in their last two starts.

The tournament covers 54 holes of medal play, 18 each day.

INGLEWOOD (UPI) — Raider Frost, winner in 2:00 3/5 last week, led a field of eight class AA pacers in the Western Harness Racing Assn. featured mile race today at Hollywood Park.

Attorney C. Leo Deorsey, a former director of the Washington club and Griffith's adviser, made clear that he was talking about Arnold Johnson, owner of the Kansas City Athletics.

Deorsey made his statement in charging that American League club owners "buckled" under the threat of baseball anti-trust legislation and blocked Griffith's attempt to move the Senators to Minneapolis.

Johnson, contacted in New York City, immediately tried to knock down Deorsey's intimation that he wanted to take the Athletics to the Pacific Coast.

"I'd have to pay rent in two stadiums," he said. "We've agreed to renewal of our lease in Kansas City through 1964. I certainly couldn't pay rent for two ball parks."

"As baseball expands, it will have to be to large cities like New York and Los Angeles which can support two clubs. But I'm not one of them."

Around Town with Hildy Crawford Phone FA 5-5005

It was "Hats, Hats, Hats . . . Hats to the left of us . . . Hats to the right of us . . . Hats in front of us all in a row" . . . from the opening song by the PlayerStage group that set the fast pace for the show . . . through the unbelievable parade of hats that crossed Chi Chi stage Monday afternoon . . . as the Float Parade Committee staged its Hat Parade Luncheon . . . Artist John Morris said the array of colorful hats reminded him of the Flower Market in Paris . . . and one of the photographers . . . who was shooting everything in color said he'd photographed hat shows all over the country . . . but had never seen anything like this . . .

One woman . . . who came down from Los Angeles for the show (Mrs. George Irwin) had a head-dress she had planned to bring down in an armored truck (that's what she said) but it was so heavy she couldn't wear it . . . As it turned out she did all right anyway . . . She won the week at Golden Door . . . which was sweepstakes for best hat in show . . . with a towering gold mobile . . .

Marianne Walters and tiny Gina dressed alike in blue and white checked dresses and Palm Springs hats . . . went home with the Las Vegas three-days-and-two-nights-food-and-entertainment at the Sahara . . .

One of the most sensational outfits in the show was one Mrs. Turner Clack had brought back with her from their around-the-world trip . . . It was a Siamese dancing girl's costume . . . heavily embroidered in gold . . . with a weighty jeweled gold head-dress . . . winning her first in the Around the World category . . .

the little gold hat bracelet charm from Andrea's . . .

Betty McGee dubbed her hat "El Gordo" because it was fashioned of gourds and accented with red sprays of grass . . . one of the most becoming hats in the show . . . and it was judged best in the Zany Hat classification . . . winning her an 11 x 14 Living Color or portrait from Anderson Photography . . .

Edith (Mrs. Robert) Morrey . . . who won the sweepstakes last year . . . carried off the Spectacular award this year . . . She wore a most becoming hat to the luncheon . . . but when it came time for the parade she had this exciting headdress that was a miniature Palm Springs float . . . Her prize was a blouse from Madelyn Fló Rito . . .

There wasn't much competition in the Fresh Flower division . . . with only two entries . . . and Mrs. Sally Franks won first with a hat trimmed in fresh chrysanthemums in rusts and yellows . . . with a Bird of Paradise cockade . . . Her prize was a hat and handbag set from Jessie Baumgardner . . .

Isabelle Cameron won a special award for a beautiful Palm Springs hat simply loaded down with flowers and all-pink in decor . . . a set of canape dishes from Arthur Elrod Ltd.

There was quite a parade of men's hats, but Roy Bradley took home the charro hat prize (gift of Mayor Frank Bogert) wearing a zany outfit, with flowers around his neck like the prize winning horses at the race tracks and a bowl of vegetables balanced precariously atop his head . . .

Mrs. Sid Tornack wore an oriental type hat and handbag in gold, with the exquisite beauty of jewelry . . . Vicki Malouf's dream hat (she made it herself) was a pink feather creation, with tiny angels perched on a crescent moon of white styrofoam . . . Edith Lusby's dramatic head gear was a huge slice of watermelon . . . Bess Bender's entry . . . easily one of the most beautiful in the show . . . was "An Evening in Paris" . . . a glamorous flower concoction . . . worn by Lee De Stefano . . .

Mrs. Kenneth Graw wore a red-white-and-blue United Nations hat with all the flags on top . . . Kay Cordrey's hat . . . specially designed by her husband Earl . . . was a Playhouse spectacular . . . with two small figures on a stage . . . and theatre tickets in the orange Julie brim . . . There was a towering black velvet hat studded with jewelry brought back from around the world and with bracelets slipped onto the tall narrow peak (this won the sunglasses from Dr. Dexter Blau) . . . Margaret Krysan (shades of all those VFW Auxiliary Poppy Days!) wore a delightful poppy hat she had made herself . . .

Theresa Press was sensational in black and white hat and matching handbag . . . There was a "Life is Just a Bowl of Cherries" hat . . . a Golden Door entry . . . an Easter Hat Tree . . . a golf course . . . One hat supported a

NSBY Club Has Opening

The North Shore Beach Yacht Club house sets like a shore-bound ship on the edge of mysterious Salton Sea, nautical on the outside and tropical on the inside.

The full moon overhead enhanced the beauty of the setting as some 300 Club members and their guests left Highway 111 and drove along the approach that is made on Marina Drive, lined with lighted palm trees.

The Clubhouse is built shipshape and the Club burgee and standard yacht club pennants fly from the mast and yardarms on the sea side.

The decor of the clubhouse is the work of talented Murkin Berg.

There was dancing to the music of Hugh Givens' Trio, but the chief topic of conversation was the beauty of the Club itself. Exquisite in every detail, it has many unusual features. The lobby's first eye-catcher is the floating staircase to the second floor. ## Irish Colleen Says Her Vows Here at Sunday Wedding

Half way around the world from Ireland, a pretty Irish colleen was married here in Palm Springs on Sunday, and her mother flew here from Killarney bringing the wedding cake with her.

It was Kathleen O'Hanlon who was the bride and she was married to Harold C. Dolden of Santa Monica. Kathleen, who is an air hostess for TWA out of Los Angeles, is also the cousin of Father Michael O'Donohoe of Palm Springs, and it was he who performed the ceremony at 11:30 a.m. at St. Theresa Catholic Church.

The daughter of the James O'Hanlons of Kerry County, Ireland, the bride wore a Bianca gown of white silk peau de soie, trimmed with alencon lace, and with seed pearls on the bodice. The gown with a train and her short veil was caught up by a peau de soie rose. She wore pearls and carried a white orchid on her prayer book.

Matron of honor was Irene Dolden of San Francisco, sister of the groom, and bridesmaid was Veronica Booth of England. They wore short, bouffant-skirted gowns of teal blue and circular veils on triangular headpieces, white gloves, and carried nosegays of white carnations.

Roy Dolden served as best man for his brother.

The wedding reception was held at the Palm Springs Biltmore and the wedding cake that was baked in Ireland was cut and served to the guests. It's a kind of brandied fruit cake that's popular in that country for weddings.

Following a honeymoon in Jamaica at Montego Bay, and possibly Haiti, the young couple will be at home in Santa Monica where he is in business.

RICHARD MILES, although only 21 years of age, is a veteran of show business. He's now appearing as Nicky Strickland on the "Betty Hutton Show," seen Thursday nights on the CBS Television Network from 8 to 8:30 p.m.

BIRTHDAY MARKED BY NAME CHANG

Richard Miles observed his 21st birthday by separating his adult and childhood careers with a name change. Born Gerald Richard Perreau-Saussine, he became Peter Miles in 1948 when director Lewis Milestone cast him in the movie version of John Steinbeck's "The Red Pony."

Now appearing as Nicky Strickland, one of three children who "inherit" Betty Hutton as guardian on the CBS Television Network's new comedy series, "The Betty Hutton Show," he resumes a given name of Richard "to separate the man from the boy."

RICHARD HAS a truly international background. He was born in Tokyo on April 1, 1938. His mother is an American, and his father, an importer, is French. His grandfather is honorary Dean of the Paris Stock Exchange, and farther up on the family tree are the names of the Marquis de Sausseine, Count Perreau, and those of various lieutenants of William the Conqueror.

Richard was a baby when his family journeyed to his father's homeland, France, and was two years old when the Perreau family escaped from Nazi-occupied Paris and made their way to America and Los Angeles.

WHEN HE WAS five years old, director Michael Curtiz was searching for a boy who could speak French to play the son of Humphrey Bogart in "Passage to Marseille." A friend at the studio urged Mrs. Perreau to take Richard in for a test. She did and he got the part. That was the beginning and by the time he was eight, Richard had 40 picture credits.

At the age of 13, after having won the New York Times' Award for his performance in "Rosanna McCoy" and having just completed "Quo Vadis?" Richard decided to devote more time to his education. Following his graduation from Loyola High School in Los Angeles, he spent two years at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., where he studied courses for the diplomatic service.

HE NEXT ENROLLED at the University of Fribourg in Switzerland, and between semesters took several courses at the Sorbonne in Paris. After travelling widely throughout Europe, he returned home and continued his studies at UCLA.

Throughout his school and college career, Richard was involved in extra-curricular activities, athletic as well as academic and artistic. Winner of three state junior tennis titles, he played on both the Loyola and Georgetown tennis teams. He has had an exhibition of his paintings and has had poems and stories published in both American and European magazines.

Richard's more recent television credits include "Perry Mason," "Father Knows Best," "Lux Theater," and many others.

ALTHOUGH RICHARD became the first actor in the Perreau family, two of his sisters have since launched their own careers in show business. His sister, Gigi Perreau and Janine, are both actresses. His youngest sister, Laurie, age 6, has yet to show interest in an acting career. Gigi and Richard will play brother and sister in the "Goldie" series.

HALF-CRAZED KILLER FIGHTS EXECUTION IN 'MARSHAL' SHOW

Frank, Bing, Dean Are Entertaining

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—The gashouse gang of show business, Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby and Dean Martin, floated through an entertaining hour of songs, dances and their special brand of "way out" utterances on ABC-TV Monday night.

It was very easy to take. Working in front of proper, dignified and sedate sets, the trio frolicked in a carefully carefree fashion and displayed huge quantities of personal magnetism.

THESE THREE men can entertain just by snapping their fingers.

Since it was called the Frank Sinatra Show, I'll begin by saying the celebrated chairman of the board was in command most of the way. The exceptions came when his unnamed buddy, Dean Martin, upstaged him with some unabashed mugging. Fortunately, the trio managed to avoid embarrassing, or ultra-inside ad libs.

The Sinatra-Crosby exchange of Sept. 29 is still a vivid memory. There was no one loud plug and that was earned by Martin who laid down and raised a show to a new level.

THE SHOW HAD a comfortable pace, although it was slowed down by an uninspired dance featuring Mitzi Gaynor, the only lady guest on the show. And, treasure of treasures, it even had a sock finish. As Frank, Bing, and Dean imitated the Clayton, Jackson and Durante team of years ago, Jimmy Durante — in person — came on to join them. They all strutted off in triumph.

Another highlight was Sinatra pretending he was on a night club floor in front of the band. There was no need to think about the staging or the camera. Frankie just stood there and put down his songs in his authoritative way and it was fine stuff.

PRIOR TO THAT Frankie sat in with a platoon of children (real looking ones) to sing "High Hopes." That, too, was a knowing show business touch that came off well.

Producer - Director Bill Coleran managed the cameras with precision, catching the stars in fine closeups to punctuate their moves.

War Guilt

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Everybody is entitled to his pet peeve which can be kicked around to ease the temper, but it's advisable to have a peeve that won't kick back. For years in hours of misanthropy I have found comfort in complaining about the indecency and injustice of the Nuremberg Trials, but lately I've had my comeuppance. The Nuremberg Trials have kicked my back.

It all started during the last Congressional session in the office of Senator Tom Dodd (D., Conn.) where I made some slighting reference to these legalized lynching bees of the warring Germans.

"MAYBE YOU'RE right about what happened to the Nazi leaders," said Dodd, who had been a member of the Tribunal. "Personally, I didn't care much for those fellows. They would get what was coming to them, one way or another. But totalitarian States are much alike. The things that you learn from the Nazis will help you a lot with the Communists."

The Senator and I had several discussions on this level, and then one day it happened. The postman arrived at 1391 National Press Building with an oblong mail bag, five feet long and two feet square. In an effort to educate my recalcitrant ignorance, the Senator had shipped me bound volumes of the Trials' documents. I promised myself that "some rainy day" I'd stay in the office and delve into this mammoth research. And — well, the other day it rained.

IT WON'T DO to say that I have read the whole Nuremberg proceedings, but I read enough to catch the drift. It appears that four nations — the USA, the USSR, Great Britain and France — made a solemn declaration that it is a national crime to plot a war and a personal crime to conduct war and occupation in an inhumane manner.

ONLY SENATOR Symington, I think, has dared to stress the "offensive" weapons. The others, if they talk at all of national armament, call it nothing except "defense" or, in a burst of audacity, "deterrence."

It ought to occur to us now and then that, horrible as war is, defeat is worse. It is time we became aware that a nation which feeds itself and its rising generations on pacifism is also spooning out defeatism.

SINCE EVERYTHING in life is relative, we do not really have the capability of knowing that war is wholly bad. All we can say is that, having compared the two, war is worse than peace. But if we have a long siege of peace, we will lose this power of comparison. It is not inconceivable that certain conditions of peace — certainly the conditions of a Communist-dominated peace — would prove intolerable.

So, I'm glad that it rained and I stayed in the office to nibble at the huge packet of reading matter sent me by Senator Dodd.

The whole Liberal group in America — political literary, philosophical — has hammered upon the wickedness of war until many of the citizenry have learned to recite the anti-war creed by rote. We have reached the astonishing posture of a nation which is in real danger of annihilation but whose Com-

For a Better World

TAIPEI, Taiwan — The growth of higher education we have seen here in Formosa over and over again during our visits since 1950 inspired this reflection on the importance of education as an instrument to world understanding.

Let's begin with what we mean by higher education. What, for instance, is the purpose of a college or a university across the world? It certainly isn't a club . . . or a reform school . . . or a government institution for political slanting.

A COLLEGE is not endowed for the purpose of mating the sexes. A university is not an agency for anybody's propaganda, although some universities in both the Communist and non-Communist world do pervert education with subtle propaganda for this or that cause.

Let's begin with what we mean by higher education. What, for instance, is the purpose of a college or a university across the world? It certainly isn't a club . . . or a reform school . . . or a government institution for political slanting.

WE FIND THAT Socrates, for instance, discussed Communism in the Republic of Plato. But Socrates was executed because he dared to teach freedom of thought to the youth of his day.

Anybody who is familiar with higher education around the world will not hesitate to confirm that the greatest majority of professors are against curtailment of freedom, which means they are against controlled and directed teaching as in Communist schools.

THE ESSENCE of the American educational system — more than any other system we found in the world — is geared to encourage both the teacher and the student in unending inquiry and research into all points of view.

THE TRUE STUDENT today in colleges all over the world resents the suggestion that he is not capable of considering anything more important than "fun," fraternities and football.

It probably would be better for the student if there were no "fun" fraternities and football on the campus where he has come to study. For all of these are a distraction. The "club life" of a campus serves a purpose in mass teaching . . . but detracts from scholarly teaching.

ONE OF THE reasons the Russians are ahead of us in teaching science, for instance, is because they concentrate on science and on nothing else on specialized campuses. This is both good and bad. It is good for science . . . but not good for serving the thinking mind on the subject of thought.

SOME MISFITS creep into the teaching profession and use the classroom as a center of propaganda. But these don't last. The students will sabotage their classes. It is rather unfortunate that adults in all nations have a tendency of overestimating the pliability and gullibility of students.

IF THE TEACHER and the student join together on the campus with the idea that education is going to be primarily for financial profit they have missed the purpose of the university. A truly great university is a community of scholars . . . those who teach and those who come to be taught.

A university is a community where free men should be able to think and express themselves freely without fear of reprisal from any quarter. For freedom of thought, freedom of discussion, freedom of action cannot

If she again doesn't have time to change her watch, it will be just an hour after she leaves that she gets to Los Angeles due to the two-hour time difference and the fact that Chicago is still on daylight time.

Our hillsides rise straight up to heaven, thus blocking the visual line of signal. Our son is growing up without benefit of adult Westerns, situation comedies, late-late shows and quiz programs.

THE POINT IS, that tomorrow morning Mrs. G takes off from Chicago and less than four hours later will be in Los Angeles.

If she again doesn't have time to change her watch, it will be just an hour after she leaves that she gets to Los Angeles due to the two-hour time difference and the fact that Chicago is still on daylight time.

THE ESSENCE of the American educational system — more than any other system we found in the world — is geared to encourage both the teacher and the student in unending inquiry and research into all points of view.

THE TRUE STUDENT today in colleges all over the world resents the suggestion that he is not capable of considering anything more important than "fun," fraternities and football.

It probably would be better for the student if there were no "fun" fraternities and football on the campus where he has come to study. For all of these are a distraction. The "club life" of a campus serves a purpose in mass teaching . . . but detracts from scholarly teaching.

ONE OF THE reasons the Russians are ahead of us in teaching science, for instance, is because they concentrate on science and on nothing else on specialized campuses. This is both good and bad. It is good for science . . . but not good for serving the thinking mind on the subject of thought.

SOME MISFITS creep into the teaching profession and use the classroom as a center of propaganda. But these don't last. The students will sabotage their classes. It is rather unfortunate that adults in all nations have a tendency of overestimating the pliability and gullibility of students.

IF THE TEACHER and the student join together on the campus with the idea that education is going to be primarily for financial profit they have missed the purpose of the university. A truly great university is a community of scholars . . . those who teach and those who come to be taught.

A university is a community where free men should be able to think and express themselves freely without fear of reprisal from any quarter. For freedom of thought, freedom of discussion, freedom of action cannot

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Shylock or Antonio?

HOLLYWOOD—Orson Welles, fat and looking 65 although he's only 44, will play Shylock in a London legit version of "The Merchant of Venice" after he finishes filming "Crack in the Mirror" for Darryl Zanuck. Orson would be better off playing the part of Antonio, the guy who's supposed to lose that pound of flesh.

I ran into Joe Lansing, whose walk-with-a-wiggle in "Who Was That Lady?" belongs in the higher realms of art, along with the Tiller Girls, Mme. Tussaud's Wax Museum and Disneyland. I asked the doll whether she was wiggling. "Over to Paramount," said she, "to see Bill Perlberg — he wants me to play the kook broad in 'The Rat Race.'"

JOHN IRELAND is going for older girls this season. The 44-year-old ex-boyfriend of 16-year-old Tuesday Weld is now romancing 37-year-old Ava Gardner in Spain.

And all of Ava's ex-husbands — Mickey Rooney, Artie Shaw and Frank Sinatra — will agree with me, I'm sure, that this makes John our leading Living Example of Ernest Hemingway's long-ago definition of courage as "grace under pressure."

It was too gruesome to print last Sept. 17, when Errol Flynn said it to Mike Romanoff, so I filed it for future reference. "I don't care what the newspapers say about me," Errol told his old pal Mike. "I'm gonna have fun because I'll be dead in five years anyway."

Riffed in the Ready Room: "But I tell ya I'm NOT fat around the midriff — it's just that I have large stomach muscles!"

DWIGHT TAYLOR, son of the late Laurette Taylor, is "filling in" Judy Holliday on his mother in preparation for Judy's starring stint in "Laurette." At Judy's behest, here's my unhesitating advice to Judy: Don't try to imitate Laurette, Talullah Bankhead, Lynn Fontanne, and the late Ethel Barrymore, three of our all-time greats, all admitted Miss Taylor was the greatest, and especially in her last play, "The Glass Menagerie."

Anyone who could teach you how Laurette tricked up her "Christian martyr" phone scene in that play, Judy, could teach you to walk on water. So Judy — please! — just be Judy in "Laurette!"

LIZ TAYLOR will do "Butterfield 8" for Metro after all.

They're "cleaning up" the script for her. Postmortem: Liz spurned it at first because of the "promiscuity" of the heroine, saying she wanted to play "Cleopatra" at Fox instead — Cleopatra, the gal who STARTED promiscuity! Or maybe I've been reading the wrong history books?

High Life in Hollywood: Dr. Michael Braun's assistant had to duck out to the bank to break a $1,000 bill offered her in payment for dental services rendered two of Dr. Braun's patients.

THE BOYS AT 20th-Fox are trying to sign the two kookies comics who appeared on Ed Sullivan's Oct. 11 show — Marc Anthony and Jackie Curtis — to a movie contract.

They see the ladies as "another Martin and Lewis."

Moaned by Merry Anders on the crowded Cloister dance floor: "Excuse me, sir, but my rib — it is crushing your elbow!"

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

La Quinta,
October 7.

Dear Mayor Bogert:

If anything could have added to my pleasure in being in this beautiful climate for a few days, the generous gift you and your associates in the golfing community presented to me did just that. I have used the cart you gave me each day that I have been on the course, and when I return to the East it will serve constantly to remind me of the friendship and kindness I found on every side.

I am deeply grateful to all of you.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Sayre B. B. Boren

THIS LETTER WAS RECEIVED by Mayor Frank Bogert, thanking the people of Palm Springs and the desert area for the gifts presented to President Eisenhower during his vacation here. Palm Springs presented the President with a new putter and area golf courses gave him the golf cart he mentions in his letter.

Moon Pictures May Show Origin

MOSCOW (UPI) — The world's scientists may be able to figure out the origin of the moon through Soviet photographs of its hidden side, a Russian professor said today.

New Angle for Anglers

TWALTHAM, Mass. (UPI) — A tin depth sounder has been developed which is designed to help fishermen land the big ones. ## Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: Boy, have I got a problem! I am 26, my husband is 33, and my "problem" is his 41-year-old female boss. She is an overweight bleached blond who wears her clothes so tight she looks like a stuffed sausage.

No matter where my husband and I go, this blonde cow is there. It is more than a coincidence because we haven't gone out once in the past six months without "running into" her.

She moves right in and spends the whole evening talking to and dancing with my husband. I might as well not even be there. I am getting sick of this. My husband claims he doesn't know how she gets into the act. Please help me before I get jailed for assault and disturbing the peace.

FIGHTING MAD

DEAR FIGHTING: If you want to keep this woman out of the act, you'll have to find a new location. Make your own plans on the spur of the moment, and then pick an out-of-the-way spot. If no one knows in advance where you'll be—neither will she.

DEAR ABBY: How do I introduce my mother-in-law to friends and neighbors? Do I say, "This is Jane Smith," or "Joe's mother," or "This is my mother-in-law."

DEAR STUMPED: You should say, "I'd like you to know my mother-in-law, (or Joe's mother), Mrs. John Smith."

from a broken home. She told me that she wanted to be absolutely certain, that we didn't let that happen to our children. I admired her attitude. But, Abby, how long would you give a wife to "test" a marriage?

We have been married 14 years

and she is still waiting to see if our marriage will "last."

I am 43 and my wife is 39, and she is still "not sure." I am getting very disgusted with her. Can you help with a few words in your column?

WANTS A FAMILY

DEAR WANTS: Your marriage is liable to "last" longer than the ability to reproduce. A woman who deliberately delays having a family until she is 40 is being unfair to herself, her husband, and to any children she bears. I suspect that your wife fears child-birth for other reasons, and is using this as an excuse to put it off. Talk it over with her. And encourage her to place her confidence in a competent doctor.
